Re: Payment of subscriptions to Journals and Periodicals and cost of Books in the countries outside Sterling Area.

No. 593—Books. The Reserve Bank of India, Madras, have recently intimated this office that their prior approval is necessary to make payments on account of subscriptions to Journals and Periodicals and cost of books in the United States of America and other countries outside the Sterling Area and have called for a list of Journals and Periodicals and the books regularly purchased. In order to avoid the permission of the Reserve Bank being obtained in individual cases, it is proposed to send a consolidated statement of funds required annually for the purpose mentioned above, to the Reserve Bank. The Heads of Departments and the Government Industrial Concerns are therefore requested to send to this office immediately a statement of periodicals and journals subscribed for and the books purchased regularly in their respective Departments in Triplicate in the following* form so that the requisite permit may be applied for the total amount required annually.

*1	Name of the Country ...	.....
2	Name and address of the Firm ...	.....
3	Name of the Periodical or Journal.	.....
4	Amount	.....
5	Approximate amount required for the purchase of books.	.....
6	Total amount required annually in Dollars.	.....

Such of the Departments as have furnished some information in this respect previously are also requested to send fresh and exhaustive statements in triplicate as the information already furnished is not complete.

It may be noted that bills, if presented, for the amounts not included in the statement will not be admitted and payments in respect thereof will not be arranged for.
